RP&L wins 1st place in Rodeo Team Event!

Congratulations to Richmond Power & Light's Rodeo Team for competing in the Indiana Lineworkers' Rodeo sponsored by IMEA and hosted by Anderson on Friday, August 26th & Saturday, August 27th.

Results:

Team Event: Chuck Jewett, Dave Drudy, and Chris Wagner 1st Place.

Senior Event: Steve Glover 2nd Place & Gene Steelman 3rd Place.

Individual Journeyman: Rob Doty 2nd Place.

The Rodeo featured four levels of competition: Journeyman Team, Individual Journeyman, Senior and Apprentice Single.

Events were judged for safety, work practices, neatness, ability, equipment handling, and speed. Indiana utilities represented at the event were Anderson, Crawfordsville, Flora, Garrett, Jasper, Richmond, Scottsburg, and Tell City.

Four Indiana utilities competed in the Team event including Anderson, Crawfordsville, Mishawaka and Richmond. Indiana joins the growing number of states across the country to offer lineworkers the opportunity to compete for professional recognition, attend training courses, and prepare for the national competition.
